

Job Description – Ebenezer Church Machen – Church Evangelist and Cross-Cultural Officer

Background

Ebenezer Church Machen exists to glorify God by growing together in faith, sharing the Gospel, and serving our community with love and purpose. We are committed to:

- Worshipping God in spirit and truth;
- Teaching and living out the Word of God;
- Encouraging one another in our walk with Christ;
- Reaching out to others with the message of Jesus;
- Celebrating and embracing the cultural diversity of our church and the global body of Christ.

About the Role

Based at Ebenezer Church Machen, the Church Evangelist and Cross-Cultural Officer will play a vital role in advancing the church's mission through evangelism, discipleship, and global Christian engagement. This role is designed for a passionate, Spirit-led individual who is committed to proclaiming the Gospel and fostering meaningful connections between our church and the wider Christian community—locally, nationally, and internationally.

You will lead evangelistic efforts, support discipleship initiatives, and help the church understand and participate in global mission work. This includes building relationships with Christians from diverse backgrounds, partnering with international ministries, and encouraging the church to embrace its role in the global body of Christ.

Please note: This is a self-funded missionary role. The Church Evangelist and Cross-Cultural Officer will not receive a salary from Ebenezer Church Machen and must be supported by sending churches, friends, and family.

Key Responsibilities

To provide spiritual leadership, global mission insight, and evangelistic outreach across the following areas:

- Evangelism – Proclaiming the Gospel of Jesus Christ through personal witness, public events, and community engagement;
- Discipleship – Supporting the spiritual growth of new believers and church members through mentoring, Bible study, and prayer;
- Cross-Cultural Engagement – Building bridges between Ebenezer Church Machen and other Christian communities across cultures and nations;
- Global Mission – Encouraging and facilitating the church's involvement in international mission work and partnerships;

- Community Outreach – Building relationships with local residents, schools, and organizations to share the love of Christ;
- Events and Programmes – Organizing evangelistic and cross-cultural events that reflect the diversity of the global church and the heart of the Gospel;
- Training and Equipping – Helping church members grow in their ability to share their faith and engage cross-culturally;
- Partnerships – Collaborating with other churches, ministries, and mission organizations to further the mission of the church;
- Worship Leadership – Supporting and occasionally leading worship services, encouraging a culture of heartfelt praise and musical expression that reflects the diversity of the church community;
- Practical Support – Participating in the day-to-day life of the church, including administrative and operational tasks as needed.

Accountabilities

- Reports to the church leadership team;
- Works closely with ministry leaders, volunteers, and community partners;
- Upholds the values and vision of Ebenezer Church Machen as outlined in the Church Members Handbook.

Basic Requirements

- A born-again Christian with a deep love for Jesus and a passion for evangelism and global mission;
- With a background in missions, evangelism, or cross-cultural ministry;
- Strong knowledge of the Bible and ability to apply biblical truth in diverse cultural contexts;
- Excellent communication skills, both verbal and written;
- Experience in evangelism, discipleship, and/or cross-cultural ministry;
- Demonstrated sensitivity to cultural differences and a heart for unity in diversity;
- Self-motivated, reliable, and able to work both independently and as part of a team;
- Teachable, humble, and open to feedback and spiritual guidance;
- Financially self-supported through personal fundraising or sending partners;
- Committed to the ethos and mission of Ebenezer Church Machen.

Important Note:

This is a self-funded position. The Church Evangelist and Cross-Cultural Officer will not receive a salary from Ebenezer Church Machen. Candidates must demonstrate a sustainable plan for financial support through churches, family, and friends.
